

Entrance and Exit Counseling for Federal Student Loans

You must complete both entrance and exit counseling as a condition of receiving any federal loan awards. Information on these processes is available from the Financial Aid Administrator.